

Support for Graduate and Professional Students

The Weingarten Center accompanies students along their academic journey through a range of services and programs.

Academic Support

Learning Specialists assist students in further developing their strategies for coursework and study through individual consultations and group workshops.

Study Strategies

Time Management

Exam Prep/Taking

Academic Reading and Writing

Communication and Engagement

Work with a Learning Specialist to:

- Reflect on learning preferences and study methods
- Develop additional strategies to navigate graduate reading and analysis
- Improve academic writing through individualized feedback
- Establish a time management system to balance your academic, professional, and personal commitments
- Explore ways to boost productivity and motivation
- Prepare for various types of exams
- Manage the proposal and dissertation processes
- Communicate effectively with professors, TAs, and advisors
- Build a learning team and engage with the Penn academic community

Disability Services

The University of Pennsylvania is committed to the accessibility of its programs and services. Students with a disability or medical condition can request reasonable accommodations through the Weingarten Center website. Disability Services determines accommodations on an individualized basis through an interactive process, including a meeting with the student and a review of their disability documentation.
